"Judit is dynamic, committed and hard worker professional. As a client she always treated us vendors as a partner. She is always friendly, helpful and has lots of energy."

— Borbála Pető, was a consultant or contractor to Judit at Sigma Kudos

"Judit is the most skilled and enthusiastic HR specialist, I've ever met. I got to know her during the application process of a graphic designer position at Sigma Kudos. She was really helpful, prepared and organised so it was a really nice first impression from the company. She could create a friendly and welcoming atmosphere. Actually I wanted to work there, thought, if there are other colleagues with such superb personalities; it could be a nice place to work. Judit helped me a lot in the integration, if I had any questions she was there to answer. What I could see from her work method is that she is really accurate, hardworking and reliable. I can highly recommend her for any HR related positions. Judit took actively part in any kind of company events, her dynamic and vivid personality could be a great addition in a team."

— Anett Kusttyán, worked directly with Judit at Sigma Kudos

"Judit is a truly professional HR expert. When it comes to hiring people with the right kind of skills for your company or organizing HR or PR events, she is the person to recommend. Her friendly yet confident attitude makes her a great communicator."

— Gabor Szabo, CQE, CSSGB, worked with Judit at Sigma Kudos

"Judit was involved in recruiting software development contractors for my company; her high professional standards and friendly, attractive personality recommend her."

— Elemer Lelik, was with another company when working with Judit at Sigma Kudos

"Judit is the most skilled and committed HR professional I have had the pleasure to work with. She does her job with real passion and cares deeply for people. Judit was responsible mostly for recruitment at Sigma Kudos Hungary last year. She did a very thorough, but at the same time, very efficient job. No matter if we were searching for a technical writer, a graphic designer, or a software developer, she was up-to date regarding the requirements and latest trends in every field. Her positive personality and the way she approached the applicants created a great atmosphere during the interviews. As a result, she managed to get the best out of the interviewees, and gave them positive memories of the company (regardless of the outcome). Beside recruitment, Judit was responsible for the company's internal and external HR activities. She took an active part in organizing company events and representing the company on job fairs and other exhibitions. I truly recommend Judit for any HR-related position. Her broad experience and dynamic personality make her a very valuable and unique addition to any team."

"Judit's professionalism caught my eyes the very first time we met. We were put together to create some professional tests for the next applicants to my then current employer's vacancies. We had worked together for one and a half years. Her broad knowledge in the most diverse areas of technology could never cease to amaze me. If you're looking for a hard working specialist who truly understands the acronyms and buzzwords, who truly knows what to look for and what to believe, Judit is the right choice. I personally guarantee she knows what to ask, be it any kind of job application."

"I was lucky to work with Judit during a recent graphic designer recruitment process seeking for multiple applicants. She is very enthusiastic and zestful for her profession. She is not only a recruiter but a counsellor and mentor in human resource (HR). The helpful behaviour and approach of Judit is always present. She sees clearly what is needed and how it could be achieved. She knows no compromise in HR. I have learnt a lot from Judit and it was a pleasure to work with her. Judit is a dynamic person, and a very successful recruiter. Her knowledge, just to mention a few, of sociology and HR is second to none. Judit has a great social capital as well that uses very efficiently. I have worked with Judit on the preparation of job fair appearance, as a senior graphic designer and the final result was a hit, and the cooperation was really easy, smooth and blooming."
